THREE LEVELS OF PARTICIPATION

RPC FORUMS

Two (2) RPC Forums will be conducted, one in early September and a second in late November/early December. These Forums will replace the RPC Quarterly Meetings. The RPC Forums will be the arena in which all RPC stakeholder and State Agency partners will be updated on RPC progress and the final five month evaluation of RPC outcomes.

Time Commitment: Attend two (2) Forums per Project; possibly complete surveys

THREE LEVELS OF PARTICIPATION

STEERING COMMITTEES

There will be a Project Steering Committee one for each targeted project area. These roles will be established through appointment/nomination, consisting of approximately 15-20 key leadership stakeholders that will have oversight to scope, planning, and development of the project areas and individual Project Teams. The Steering Committees will have, at a minimum, representatives from CLMHD, State Partners, MCOs, and RPC stakeholder group representatives.

Time Commitment: A minimum of two (2) Steering Committee meetings and direct, ongoing communications with the individual Project Teams.

THREE LEVELS OF PARTICIPATION

PROJECT TEAMS

Each project area will have 1-2 Project Teams. These Teams will be comprised of individuals with subject matter expertise in each identified project area, that will collaborate to define the mechanics of the project specific issues identified by each Project Steering Committee. The role will be to identify key issues, factors and recommend possible solutions for the two community planning projects to present to the Project Steering Committees, and state partners.

Time Commitment: These dedicated groups will be committing to no less than 1 meeting/per month through the next five months, but may require more frequent participation in some capacity.
